

How to Register For Your Membership

If you would like to sign up to the Dental Law Club all you need to do is call us and register your details to activate your membership.

It's a simple process to sign up to the Club which can be done over the phone in a few minutes. You'll be taken through each phase of registration by one of our friendly, helpful staff.

During your registration you will be given a unique client reference number, which will be required whenever you contact us.

Once this has been assigned, simply write it on your membership card (detach from below), along with your name, and keep it with you so that you have your membership details at all times, just in case you need us!

That's it...

"Stephen Knowles has provided our practice with invaluable advice and legal services over many years. As with any business there are many situations in which experienced legal guidance is essential. Areas which included associate and partnership contracts, have included associate and partnership contracts, buy-out, advice on expense sharing arrangements, buy-ins, buy-outs, issues surrounding incorporation and more... all have been dealt with promptly and professionally by Stephen. I recommend him highly as the go-to legal advisor for any dental practice"
